“SARAH-ISM” OF THE MONTH

“RIGHT?!”

(even when things
are very much not right).

Lesson Learned

This month I learned that not everything goes to plan and not everything can be within my control. We received an offer on a home I’ve been working on for 6 months; I was so thrilled for my clients and happy that all my hard work marketing the property had paid off...

...and then it fell through.

Having to explain to my clients what happened was heartbreaking but it was truly something that I could not control and the only thing I could control was my reaction to it; so I’m back to drawing board and determined to make something happen and get this home sold. Lesson learned.
